

A novel active-learning experience for Statistics and Data Science

<https://www.stat20.org>

- High-touch interactive learning environment
- Flipped classroom blending lectures and discussions
- Classes with smaller enrollment
- Revamped content to approach today's data landscape
- TED-like talks demonstrating Statistics and Data Science in action

Schedule: In Fall 2022, there will be 9 sections of STAT 20, with ~ 100 students each. Each section will meet for 5 hours a week as follows.

Monday, 1 hour	Wednesday, 2 hours	Friday, 2 hours
Alternating weeks: In-class quiz Plenary lecture or guest TED-like talk	Mini lectures, worksheets/notebooks, individual and group activities	Mini lectures, worksheets/notebooks, individual and group activities

Lecture and lab have been collapsed into a 2-hour session on Wednesday and Friday, giving you more time with the instructor and a seamless learning experience. Students are expected to attend all five hours.

The Monday plenary lectures and TED-like talks will bring together all 9 sections and will be held at a different time and in a different classroom.

For specific times and classrooms for each section: Class Schedule.
